REF: Contract A-102

Dear Bill:

Your invoices numbered 39 and 40 have been approved for payment in the amount of $45,592.38 which is $16.92 less than the total as billed.

We are attaching theretofore copies of sheet No. 2 of the above named invoices on which we have adjusted the rates to those currently approved for billing purposes. As you will note, the suspension from invoice number 39 amounts to $5.19 and invoice number 40 to $11.73, making a total suspension of $16.92.

Incidentally, Bill, to avoid adjustments such as these, please instruct your accounting personnel to use the provisional billing rates precisely as approved by the Contracting Officer's letter to [redacted] DPD-7137-79 dated 19 October 1959, when preparing subsequent invoices under therereferenced contract. (We also made adjustments on invoices numbered 36, 37 and 38.)

Very truly yours,

[Signature]

Doug
